EMI is accountable to God and to you for an effective, Scripturally-based ministry and for ethical financial judgment. We are members of the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability, a voluntary member organization that maintains standards of accountability for ministries that convey God-honoring ethical financial practices. We accept gifts subject to donor designations. However, in accordance with IRS requirements, all gifts received are given to and must be treated as belonging fully to Engineering Ministries International and are subject to its control and discretion.

Thank you for your partnership.
